Questions Webber Coleman Woodworks recommends
you ask before signing a cabinet contract:

1. Are you insured?
2. Do you have any professional affiliations or certifications?
3. May I have a list of references from past completed projects?
4. Ask yourself if you are comfortable with this person being in your home?
5. Do you communicate well with the designer?
6. Do they have a concrete grasp of your project and have they shown they can listen to you and your ideas?
7. Is the price you've been given firm or subject to escalation?
8. What is your warranty?
9. How long have you been in business?
